A Reminder for our Customers

We are more than just an ordinary shed company. We design and manufacture our structures to meet each customer's individual need. We strive to bring you a high-quality product with many features that make a better looking and longer lasting building. We are here to make your backyard structure dreams come true!

Remember, we are more than just an ordinary shed company.

Where Do We Start?

1

Identify

Determine your goals for your structure.

2

Research

Spend time gathering ideas, from sources such as Pinterest or Houzz, or simply order something you see in this brochure.

3

Share

Connect with one of our design consultants, and communicate your vision.

4

Plan

Discuss and confirm the design details, including detailed drawings if necessary.

5

Produce

Our skilled Amish craftsmen will take your design and begin construction

6

Deliver

When your personal space becomes yours.
